

UK begins donating millions of COVID-19 vaccines to countries overseas including the Philippines

The UK will this week begin delivering nine million Covid-19 vaccines around the world, including to the Philippines, to help tackle the pandemic.