

UK charters more flights to help British nationals to leave Lebanon

Government set to support hundreds of British nationals to leave Lebanon in the coming days, as British nationals are urged to get the first flight available.