

UK citizens and businesses to be spared time and money on cross-border legal disputes

Firms caught up in endless international legal disputes will be spared time and money thanks to Ministers signing up to the 2019 Hague Convention today (12 January 2024).