Connecting People and Places

A team of aspiring architects have been researching and visiting places of historic interest to BAME communities. Read more

Heritage at Risk: In Progress

Founded in 1998, the Heritage at Risk register is the annual snapshot of the health of England's historic places. Read more

The Story of Camouflage During the Second World War

The British Army School of Camouflage was founded in 1916 and based in London's Kensington Gardens. Read more

6 Places That Tell the Story of Kensington and Chelsea

Once a predominantly rural area, the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea was officially created in 1965 and over time has evolved into one of London's most diverse and historic neighbourhoods. During the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the borough saw huge development in infrastructure as farmland was transformed into a thriving urban landscape. In the twentieth century, waves of immigration have made the borough (London's smallest) one of the most diverse. Here are six places in Kensington and Chelsea that Read more

Eight of England's Most Magnificent Libraries

Libraries are ingrained into the blueprints of cities worldwide. As well as their obvious educational importance, they play a substantial role culturally and historically. Read more