

UK donation to the International Criminal Court's Special Fund for Security will help to protect the Court from future cyber-attacks

Today, Lord (Tariq) Ahmad announced the UK's voluntary contribution of £300,000 to the International Criminal Court's Special Fund for Security, the second-highest contribution to date.