

UK drives green growth by connecting millions to electricity across Africa

UK Minister for Africa Lord Collins announces support to extend electricity access to millions across Africa.