

UK, EU and Canada impose new sanctions targeting Myanmar military regime and its associates

The UK, EU and Canada have announced further sanctions targeting the Myanmar military's access to military material, equipment and funds.