

UK Export Finance helps medical supplier send lifelines around the world

Leicester business Unimed Procurement Services secured government-backed financing to help it deliver life-saving medical equipment around the world.