

UK firms to deliver €415 million sustainable development scheme in coastal Angola

Support from UK Export Finance means that British firms have secured contracts to upgrade critical infrastructure in Benguela Province and protect the region against future flooding.