

UK government advances growth mission overseas by strengthening links with leading European businesses

Minister Stephen Doughty will travel to Madrid and Lisbon to meet with counterparts and senior representatives from top European businesses.