

UK Government helps British business export emergency bridges to Ghana

UK Export Finance provides billions to support development projects in Africa, while securing export contracts for UK companies