

UK Government launches programmes that will support Kenyans with disabilities access employment opportunities

High Commissioner, Nic Hailey, launched two UK-funded programmes that will support persons with disabilities access employment opportunities.