

UK government seals further £225 million investment in Teesside renewables industry with financing deal

One of the largest factories in the global offshore wind sector will expand and support even more jobs after UK Export Finance worked with Korean investors to secure new financing.