

UK Government to confirm extra funding for Devolved Administrations to tackle Covid

Additional funding from the UK Reserve will be made available to the governments in Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland to progress their vaccine rollout and wider health response.