

UK Government working hand in hand with Australia to promote trade in legal and tech services

Legal and technology professionals on opposite sides of the world are set to benefit from bolstered connections between the UK and Australia through the UK Government's GREAT Legal Services campaign's latest programme of eve...