

UK holds China state-affiliated organisations and individuals responsible for malicious cyber activity

UK calls out pattern of malicious cyber activity by Chinese state-affiliated organisations and individuals targeting democratic institutions and parliamentarians.