

UK imposes new wave of sanctions choking Russian oil revenues with Foreign Secretary arriving in Italy for G7

Thirty ships in Russia's shadow fleet, responsible for transporting billions of pounds worth of oil and oil products in the last year alone, have today been sanctioned by the UK.