

UK increases support for Anguilla's health, security and infrastructure as Minister for Overseas Territories visits islands

The UK Minister for the Overseas Territories, Stephen Doughty, will announce new support for Anguilla's health and security infrastructure as he makes his first visit to the Overseas Territories this week (2-4 November).