

UK invests in global grassroots efforts to tackle gender-based violence

UK marks the annual 16 Days of Activism to End Gender Based Violence with renewed efforts to work with partners to prevent violence and empower women and girls around the world.