

UK joins US-Bahrain agreement to build security across the Middle East

The UK will join the US-Bahrain Comprehensive Security Integration and Prosperity Agreement as it works with partners to build long-term security and stability across the Middle East