

UK leads global action to protect rainforests, cut methane emissions and advance low carbon technologies

UK commits more than £85 million funding at COP28 to tackle deforestation and cut methane emissions.