

UK project supports girls in vulnerable conditions

British Ambassador to Guatemala, Juliana Correa, met with women and girls who are improving their lives with the help of a UK funded project.