

UK response to US statement on steel and aluminium

The Department for International Trade welcomes the US Administration's commitment to consult closely on bilateral and multilateral trade issues.