

UK strengthens national security and bolsters Ukraine's war chest with £2.26 billion military loan

Ukraine will receive further funding to purchase essential military equipment to defend itself against Russia's illegal invasion, as the Chancellor today announces that the Government will loan a further £2.26 billion in new...