

UK summons Russian Ambassador following Russia's public campaign of aggression against the UK

The Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office has summoned the Russian Ambassador today following Russia's malicious and deliberate public campaign of aggression against the UK.