

UK supports Indigenous Maya Girls to create transformational change in Guatemala

The British Embassy supported the MAIA Impact School by maximising the potential of young women through education.