

UK supports millions of people globally in bid to end gender-based violence

UK support to tackle gender-based violence (GBV) has reached over 4 million people over 2 years, helping to tackle domestic abuse, child marriage, and female genital mutilation, and support survivors of violence.