

UK supports Philippine humanitarian response with £1 million

The UK Government contributed £1 million (PHP 74.14 million) to help those most affected by successive typhoons that have recently struck the Philippines.