

UK takes action to boost supply chain resilience for critical goods and back businesses

The Department for Business and Trade launches the Critical Imports and Supply Chains Strategy, safeguarding UK supplies of critical goods such as medicines, minerals and semiconductors.