

UK to launch world first sanctions regime to snare people smugglers travelling upstream

The UK will develop a new sanctions regime to cripple people smuggling crime rings and starve them of illicit finance fuelling their operations.