

UK works with Honduras ahead of Association Agreement implementation

The British Embassy and the Department of International Trade delivered training to customs officials from Honduras.