

Celebrating Easter

I suspect that many people outside the church think that Christmas is the most important date in the Christian calendar. It isn't Christmas, but Easter. While at Christmas we celebrate Jesus, the son of God coming to earth, taking on human form and living like we do. At Easter, we remember he died for us and was brought back to life.

Go to Source

Author:

2.8 million!

Our printers are working through the night to create mailings to 2.8 million people across the UK – telling them why they need to vote Liberal Democrat in the European elections.

We're off to a flying start thanks to your generous donations.

THANK YOU.

Go to Source

Author:

Celebrating Passover

Whether Brexit ever happens or not, what is certain is this week we will commemorate the original Exodus some 3,332 years ago.

Go to Source

Author:

Sal Speaks: April 2019

Local election campaigns around the country are going well with just under two weeks left. Like many of you, our home has moved into our regular election machine, and our driveway is the Watford garden poster factory!

Go to Source

Author:

3 steps to beating the climate crisis

Whether it's young people taking time off school or the Commons' naked protestors: they are right. We face a climate crisis.

Go to Source

Author: