Want to stop Brexit? Vote Lib Dem at the European elections

There's been a lot of talk about tactical voting in the EU elections.

The method of voting used for European Parliament elections – d'Hondt – means it's still possible to split the vote.

Off to a flying start

We launched our European campaign on Friday – and the reception has been great.

We set out a simple, clear message – that a vote for the Lib Dems is a vote to stop Brexit. It's resonated loud and clear with Remainers up and down the country.

This morning at the @LibDems Euro campaign launch. I don't think they could make their central message in this campaign much clearer. pic.twitter.com/9IkM6amXiU
