

Sal Speaks: July 2018

On 23 June thousands of members and supporters of the Lib Dems joined over one hundred thousand marchers in the People's Vote demonstration to Parliament Square. Your Federal Board curtailed our meeting at HQ to come and join you, and it was a wonderful event! Vince spoke from the platform with strength and conviction, aided with the knowledge that our party is united in wanting both a People's Vote and an Exit from Brexit.

Go to Source

Author:

Charlatan Trump an enemy of the people

Donald Trump has claimed that the Conservatives' Brexit plan has killed off any chance of a UK-US trade deal.

Go to Source

Author:

How we communicated our messages

So you have your team, you know who to talk to, but what are you going to tell people, and how are you going to do it.

Go to Source

Author:

Day of Brexit Chaos

Theresa May tried to portray strength as her Cabinet decamped to Chequers to review her Brexit plans. Rebels ministers were warned they would lose their official cars if they resigned, with taxis on standby to shuttle the disloyal back to London.

This was May's moment to bring her Cabinet in line.

For a moment, it appeared that May had managed to quietly stifle dissent. Then the dam broke.

Late Sunday night, the Prime Minister's own Brexit Secretary, David Davis, resigned.

BBC Politics @BBCPolitics · Jul 8
Brexit Secretary David Davis resigns

Oops Theresa May.

The British people woke Monday morning to the image of a government in disarray as the PM's chief Brexit negotiator finally jumped ship.

The Tories then held their breath wondering if any other resignations would follow. Coincidentally, people couldn't pin down a certain Foreign Secretary..

Sky News Breaking @SkyNewsBreak · 20h
Downing Street says Boris Johnson has resigned as Foreign Secretary

367 1.8K 3.4K

Go to Source

Author:

David Davis and Brexit Chaos

Bluntly, David Davis' resignation today makes it clear: this government is up shit creek without a paddle.

It is obvious to all – Brexiters and Remainers alike – that Theresa May cannot deliver on Brexit.

This is most important issue in a generation and the government has failed.

“This Government is up st creek without a paddle”

There's only one option for them now. Hand Brexit back over to the people to have the final say on the Brexit deal, and include the option to remain in the EU.

Go to Source

Author: