

Britain is stronger with the back-stop of EU law

In the face of further defeats on the EU (Withdrawal) Bill, and following further pressure from Peers across the House of Lords, the government has brought forward amendments to ensure that the UK still has the ability to refer to and apply EU guidance for legal matters in our courts going forwards.

Go to Source

Author:

Third Withdrawal Bill defeat in a week for the Government

Liberal Democrats have voted with a majority of cross-party Peers in the House of Lords to inflict another defeat on the government.

Go to Source

Author:

Barnstorming double by-election win!

The Liberal Democrats won two of the council by-elections that were held last night (with one still to declare!), gaining two seats from the Conservatives!

The Liberal Democrats, under Vince Cable, are winning seats up and down the country and against all opposition – because people know when they elect Liberal Democrats, they're electing someone who'll get things done for their community!

Go to Source

Author:

Vince Cable speech: break-up the big tech monopolies

He criticised the effective monopolies enjoyed by the likes of Google, Facebook, and Amazon – comparing their market dominance to that of big oil companies in the past – and suggested ways they could be broken up.

Go to Source

Author:

Second defeat in one night for the Government on Brexit!

An amendment providing enhanced protections for employment, equality, health and safety entitlements, rights and protections, and consumer and environmental standards has been passed in the Lords.

Go to Source

Author: