

Votes tonight show Gov won't get an easy ride on the EU Withdrawal Bill

A Lib Dem amendment that would have forced the Government to publish impact assessments of either an agreement or no deal before a meaningful vote on the deal in Parliament has received cross-party support in a vote today.

Go to Source

Author:

RBS confirm rural customers will lose access to banking

Today, Les Matheson, Chief Executive, Personal & Business Banking for RBS appeared before the Westminster Scottish Affairs committee.

Go to Source

Author:

Scrap the cap and value our nurses

Figures released today show 1 in 10 nurses are leaving the NHS every year. The number of nurses leaving the NHS now outnumbers those joining.

Go to Source

Author:

Cross-party support for Parliament

taking back control tomorrow

The Liberal Democrats have gained strong cross-party support behind their bid to amend the EU Withdrawal Bill at Report Stage. The amendment will be debated in the house tomorrow.

Go to Source

Author:

Final Showdown on the EU Withdrawal Bill

Christmas and the New Year are already dim and distant memories. Parliament is back in full swing and Brexit Bills again dominate the parliamentary timetable.

The customs and trade bills this week will be followed by the report stage of the EU (Withdrawal) bill next week.

Go to Source

Author: