

Government must get its hands dirty and intervene in our broken housing market

Quarterly housebuilding statistics released today by the Department of Communities and Local Government show that just 40,310 were built in the last quarter

Go to Source

Author:

Migration stats show Exodus of EU workers

Quarterly migration data published today by the Office for National Statistics show another significant rise in EU citizens leaving the UK, up 33,000 to 122,000.

Go to Source

Author:

GCSE results – government used students as guinea pigs

I hope students and their families have every reason to celebrate today.

Go to Source

Author:

Foreign student review must allow reason to triumph over prejudice

New figures released today show the number of overseas students overstaying their visas has turned out to be vastly exaggerated.

Amber Rudd has responded by announcing a review into the impact of foreign students on the UK – but, frankly, that's the wrong response.

It's time for the government to drop overseas students from official immigration figures.

Go to Source

Author:

Amber Rudd must apologise for EU deportation letters

Amber Rudd should apologise to up to 100 EU nationals who were mistakenly sent official letters threatening them with deportation.

Go to Source

Author: