

ECJ plan shows Govt is in denial over reality of international trade

Sir Paul Jenkins has called Theresa May's Brexit strategy 'foolish' for hoping to distance the UK from the European Court of Justice whilst maintaining the benefits of the single market.

Go to Source

Author:

David Davis' comments on timetabling of Brexit talks reek of desperation

David Davis promised us 'the row of the summer' over the Brexit timetable, only to capitulate weeks later to the EU's preferred timetable after a disastrous general election for his party which vastly undermined their negotiating position.

Go to Source

Author:

Jeremy Hunt has joined the chorus of those who have had enough of experts

A renowned scientist such as Stephen Hawking questioning your evidence might normally be cause to think again, but sadly it looks as though Jeremy Hunt has joined the chorus of those who have had enough of experts.

Go to Source

Author:

Sale of Green Investment Bank is environmentally irresponsible

The Government's sale of the Green Investment Bank (GIB), which was completed today, is environmentally irresponsible.

Go to Source

Author:

Delay to Brexit trade talks a “humiliating climbdown” for David Davis

Ministers have privately admitted that the government may not start negotiating Britain's future trade relationship with the EU until the end of the year, it emerged today.

Go to Source

Author: