

Soaring trade deficit shows Brexit export boom has failed to materialise

The UK's monthly trade deficit soared by £2bn in June, driven by a 3.5% slump in exports, figures from the Office of National Statistics have revealed.

Go to Source

Author:

The Government has paid out 0.1% of the business rates relief budget

Only around £197k of the government's £300m business rates relief fund has actually been allocated, despite businesses being hit with higher rates over four months ago.

Go to Source

Author:

Rough sleeping a national scandal that the government are failing to tackle

A Crisis report is forecasting a rise in rough sleeping.

Go to Source

Author:

Letter reveals David Davis is putting UK on path to ruin

David Davis' letter to the Lords EU Committee and the comments of his former Chief of Staff reveal he is putting UK on path to ruin.

Go to Source

Author:

Chief Executive Officer Tim Gordon leaving the Liberal Democrats

The Liberal Democrats thanked the party's Chief Executive Tim Gordon today after he announced that he was stepping down after five years in the role.

Go to Source

Author: