

First steel cut for HMS Belfast

The first steel has been cut for HMS Belfast, the third ship in the Royal Navy's fleet of next generation Type 26 anti-submarine frigates.

Industry helps shape the future of Multi-Domain Integration

Strategic Command hosted a Multi-Domain Integration Industry Day on 24 June 2021

RAF Puma helicopter detachment returns from Afghanistan

The RAF Puma detachment serving in Afghanistan in support of the NATO Resolute Support Mission since March 2015 has now returned to RAF Benson.

Introducing Defence Innovation Loans! Helping you make your Defence Innovation market ready

Calling all defence SMEs – loans of up to £1.6m available to help convert your mature defence innovation into a strong business proposition for defence procurement

Landmark organisations pledge to uphold Armed Forces Covenant

Organisations have affirmed their commitment to supporting personnel and veterans by signing the Armed Forces Covenant during Armed Forces Week.