

Finding next-gen space tech: DASA launches the Space to Innovate Campaign

Over the next year, DASA will release a series of challenge “drops” to find and fund solutions to major space hurdles, with up to £2m in funding available

£36 million contract for new MOD Police Patrol Crafts

A £36 million contract has been awarded to Marine Specialised Technology to deliver 18 new police patrol crafts for the MOD and Gibraltar Defence Police (GDP) Forces.

UK underlines commitment to Western Balkans with extension of troops in Kosovo

UK troops will continue to contribute to the NATO Mission in Kosovo (KFOR) until at least 2023.

Multiple VCDS Commendation Awards for Dstl

Dstl staff have been recognised with Commendation Awards from the Vice Chief of the Defence Staff (VCDS). There is one individual award, three team awards and one group award.

DASA launches new Open Call: Security Rapid Impact Innovations

Have an innovative idea that tackles security challenges in the UK? Submit your innovation to our new security-themed Open Call!