

Market exploration: surgical instrument sterilisation in austere environments

DASA wants to identify the current market capability to deliver Medical Device Decontamination Capabilities within Defence's highly mobile medical facilities.

Atomic Weapons Establishment (AWE) Written Ministerial Statement

A Written Ministerial Statement has been laid today in Parliament announcing a change of operating model for the Atomic Weapons Establishment (AWE).

Personalised career support for hundreds of military spouses

Hundreds of partners of UK Armed Forces personnel will receive personalised career support as part of a targeted training scheme.

Offshore Windfarm development boosted by £2 million research

Innovative research to develop cutting-edge technology and make sure future offshore windfarms do not interfere with crucial military communications is underway following a £2 million Government investment.

Finalists for International Space Pitch Day revealed

15 tech firms selected to pitch to military leaders for share of £800,000 to develop space innovation