

Scottish defence industry wins new radar contract

The MOD has awarded a lion's share of a contract worth £317 million to the Scottish defence industry.

Counter-drone tech and state-of-the-art radar for the RAF

RAF Typhoons are to be equipped with next generation radar thanks to a £317 million investment, Defence Minister Jeremy Quin today announced.

Anti-bullying helpline now live

A confidential helpline has launched to provide support for personnel experiencing or witnessing bullying, harassment or discrimination in the armed forces.

Defence ecologists boost rare heathland habitats

Some of the UK's rarest reptiles have been given a safe haven on a military site in the heart of Dorset as part of the MOD's drive to create a sustainable estate.

UK military dog to receive PDSA Dickin Medal after tackling Al Qaeda insurgents

Retired military dog Kuno is to receive the prestigious PDSA Dickin Medal for valour – the animal Victoria Cross – after he was wounded in action while heroically saving the lives of British Forces fighting Al Qaeda.