

Royal Navy's new Offshore Patrol Vessel named HMS Spey

HMS SPEY, the last of five cutting-edge Offshore Patrol Vessels (OPVs) procured for the Royal Navy has been formally named on the Clyde today.

RAF pilot seconded to Virgin Orbit space programme

The Royal Air Force (RAF) and Virgin Orbit have selected the RAF pilot to be seconded to the company's ground-breaking small satellite launch programme.

Trio of buildings completed at Worthy Down

Construction of a combined medical dental centre, physical training centre and band/drill area has completed on the site of the Defence College of Logistics, Policing and Administration at Worthy Down.

HMNB Clyde selected for first UK military accommodation trial

Scottish naval base is the first to launch the Future Accommodation Model pilot for service personnel.

Duke of Sussex visits UK troops on counter-poaching operations in Malawi

The Duke of Sussex met British Army personnel deployed to Malawi and paid tribute to Guardsman Matthew Talbot, who sadly died there earlier this year