

UK to send scores of artillery guns and hundreds of drones to Ukraine

Ben Wallace reveals latest British military support for Ukraine, including plans to send 50,000 artillery shells and hundreds more anti-tank weapons in the coming weeks.

£60 million development of uncrewed helicopter supports 100 UK jobs

A cutting-edge uncrewed aircraft demonstrator will be designed and developed in a £60 million contract awarded to Leonardo.

Unknown Grenadier Guard laid to rest

An unknown Grenadier Guard killed in the Great War finally laid to rest in France

£1 million for innovation to enhance UK space capabilities

Five innovative organisations have won a share of £1 million to develop technologies that enhance the UK's ability to safely operate in space.

Defence Procurement Minister speech on sustainability at Farnborough International Airshow

Defence Procurement Minister Jeremy Quin at Farnborough International Airshow on sustainability in Defence