

Maritime security in the Gulf: UK government response

This page sets out the government's initial response, during June and July 2019, to growing tensions following the impounding of tankers by Iran in the Gulf.

Building peace and saving lives through government fund

The cross-government Conflict, Stability and Security Fund is delivering programmes in conflict areas to improve UK security.

Iran tanker seizure: UK government response

This page sets out our response to the situation in the Gulf after Iranian forces seized a British-flagged tanker, Stena Impero, in the Strait of Hormuz.

Commemorations for the 50th anniversary of Op Banner announced

Op Banner was the longest continuous deployment of troops in UK Armed Forces history.

UK and Sweden partner on future combat air

The Defence Secretary and her Swedish counterpart have signed a landmark agreement.