

News story: F-35 Lightning aircraft take off for inaugural overseas exercise

The Royal Air Force's newest fighter left its home base for Cyprus today to take part in its first overseas training exercise following introduction. This follows the announcement of their deployment to RAF Akrotiri in April 2019.

News story: Two unknown soldiers given military burial a century after their deaths in the Great War

Two unknown soldiers have been laid to rest more than 100 years after they fell serving their county during World War 1.

Press release: UK host Australia-UK ministerial talks

Foreign Secretary Jeremy Hunt and Defence Secretary Gavin Williamson host their Australian counterparts this week for AUKMIN 2018.

News story: NCGI success at the GSE Geography in Government Awards 2019

At the GSE Geography in Government Awards, 6 nominations from the National Centre for Geospatial Intelligence, part of Defence Intelligence, were shortlisted.

News story: Graves of Two Kent Soldiers Identified a Century After Their Deaths in the Great War

The resting places of Captain (Capt) Cecil Thomas Tuff, The Queen's Own (Royal West Kent Regiment) and Captain Eric Wilson Edwards, The Queen's (Royal West Surrey Regiment), have been identified more than a hundred years after they lost their lives during World War I.