

News story: Defence Minister visits Imperial College Translation and Innovation Hub

The Minister for Defence Procurement has been learning about Imperial College's £2 billion White City Campus, and how it offers new opportunities for defence and security innovation.

News story: New fast jet training takes off

The Chief of the Air Staff, Air Chief Marshal Sir Stephen Hillier, has opened the High-G training and test facility at RAF Cranwell today.

News story: New figures reveal increase in ex-service personnel employment rates

Rates of ex-forces personnel back in employment or education within 6 months of leaving service reach 88%.

News story: British Army tests innovative virtual reality training

The British Army has awarded a software developer a £1m contract to explore how virtual reality can be integrated into soldier training.

News story: Cambridge company fuels the way forward for protecting the UK and Allies

Defence Minister Stuart Andrew has announced the first fuel tanks supporting the UK's new fleet of submarine hunting aircraft have rolled off the line in Cambridge.