

Learning from our experiences together – further updates

Committed to listening to veterans and improving how we provide our services

Quin opens first defence science and technology hub in the North East

New Dstl site in Newcastle will specialise in artificial intelligence and data science and work with regional partners

Graves of Five Great War Soldiers Rededicated

The final resting places of five soldiers killed in World War One have been identified, and Services of Re-dedication have taken place at their graves in northern France over the last two days (22 and 23 March).

DBS Veterans Customer Satisfaction Results 2021

This report summarises the key findings and results from the Veterans UK Customer Satisfaction Survey 2021.

Register now for MOD science and technology summit

Industry and academia invited to free Supercharging Science 2022 networking and engagement event in Wales, as MOD launches ambitious new science programmes.