

Herculean efforts to ramp up vaccine delivery: Swann

Health Minister Robin Swann has praised the “Herculean efforts” being made to further ramp up the delivery of COVID-19 vaccine boosters.

Statement from the Education Minister on the General Teaching Council for Northern Ireland

Education Minister Michelle McIlveen today made a statement to the Assembly outlining her decision to dissolve the General Teaching Council for Northern Ireland.

Have your say on Draft Budget – Murphy

Finance Minister, Conor Murphy is encouraging citizens, communities and businesses to have their say on the Draft Budget.

Two further suspect cases of notifiable avian flu identified

Two further suspect cases of notifiable avian influenza have been identified in a commercial poultry flock near Markethill in County Armagh and a commercial duck flock in Coagh, County Tyrone.

Walk-in boosters now available for 30 plus age range

Health Minister Robin Swann has announced details of a further acceleration of the COVID-19 vaccine booster programme.

New initiatives have been taken in light of the expected surge of Omicron variant cases in Northern Ireland in January.

The number of confirmed Omicron variant cases in NI has now increased to 10.